

Character before Prophethood

The Arabs committed many evil practices before Islam, like murder, robbery, liquor etc.

The Ka'bah was destroyed by a flood, all the tribes got together to rebuild the Ka'bah.

A decision was made that the 1st person who enters the Masjidul Haraam (Ka'bah) the next morning from a certain door, will make the final decision regarding the placing of the Hajr-e-Aswad.

However Nabi صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ character & dealings were all pure, he was known as As-Saadia(Truthful) & Al-Ameen(Trustworthy)

When the time came to place the Hajr-e-Aswad(Blackstone), every tribe wanted the honour to place it. This led to a great dispute and fight.

The next morning Nabi صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ walked in, everyone was very happy. Nabi صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ made 1 person from each tribe hold onto a piece of cloth which had the Hajr-e-Aswad, they all carried the cloth until they reached the place where the Blackstone was to be placed. Nabi صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ himself picked up the Blackstone and placed it. Everybody was happy.