

10 Guidelines for the Exams

1. Study the syllabus breakdown carefully and complete your syllabus before the examination date.
2. Draw up a revision programme in all subjects for the pupils so that all necessary work can be revised.
3. Give them the breakdown in writing and explain to them how to revise their work.
4. Contact the parents of the children in your class and ask them to assist their child in the revision.
5. Have the names of the pupils written down in the mark sheet prior to the exams in alphabetical order.
6. Encourage the baaligh girls to wear purdah and attend madrasah, especially for the examination. Those girls who are in their menses should be indicated with a star (*) on the mark sheet. They should not be embarrassed in front of the entire class. They will be tested in Duas and Hadith.

It is the responsibility of the Muslim Ummah that they convey the message of Allah Ta'ala to every nation in their own language. Together with making them understand by means of our tongues as well as our pens, we should present to them good akhlaaq as an example. In this way we will show them the difference between kufr and Islam.

7. Ensure that all pupils are present at the Madrasah at least 10 minutes before the examination commences.
8. Write the exam dates on the board so that children are aware and are prepared for the examinations.
9. Conduct a mock exam by asking your principal or co-teacher to examine your class and point out any weak areas.
10. Have the Blue Progress Cards for each pupil filled in and ready for the examiner.

Advice for Maktab Teachers

Rasulullah sallallahu alayhi wa sallam said,

خَيْرُكُمْ مَنْ تَعَلَّمَ الْقُرْآنَ وَعَلَّمَهُ

The best amongst you is he who learns the Qur-aan and teaches it. (Bukhari)

When the famous Muhaddith who is one of the narrators in Bukhari Sharif, Abu Abdur Rahman as-Sulami rahimahullah, heard the above Hadith of Rasulallah sallallahu alayhi wa sallam, he was prompted to dedicate his whole life to the learning and teaching of the Qur-aan Sharif. He served the Qur-aan consistently for more than 38 years. The following statement of his is found in Bukhai Sharif,

ذَلِكَ الَّذِي أَقْعَدَنِي مَقْعَدِي هَذَا

It is this Hadith that caused me to sit here (and teach the Qur-aan).

There is no other occupation better than teaching Deen to little children.

Dua for the Palestinians

Every day we should take out a minute or two at the end of maktab time, to collectively make dua for the Palestinians. The Ustaaz/Apa should make dua and the children should say Aameen. Insha Allah through the barkat of the Aameen of these innocent children, Allah Ta'ala will bring about favourable conditions in Palestine.

May Allah forgive us all and have mercy on the Ummah.
