Introduction to Aqaaid

The greatest gift that Allah Ta'ala blesses any person with is undoubtedly the gift of Imaan. Any person blessed with Imaan, has to take care and look after his Imaan very, very carefully until he is eventually blessed with death on Imaan, which is indeed the greatest success.

From the eight subjects taught at a maktab, Aqaaid is the most important subject. This forms the foundation of Imaan and Islam. That is why perhaps the first thing a child is taught when he enters the maktab is the five kalimahs, thereby strengthening his Imaan.

Children attending state and private schools are faced with huge challenges attacking their Imaan from all sides.

It is for this reason that a child, from a young impressionable age, is taught the important beliefs of a Muslim to combat the attacks against Imaan. The syllabus has been prepared to firmly embed the fundamental beliefs of a Muslim in the heart and mind of every Muslim child.

May Allah Ta'ala accept this humble effort and make it a means of safeguarding our Imaan.

اللَّهُمَّ ثَبِّتْنَا عَلَى الْإِيمَانِ وَامْتِنَّا عَلَى الْإِيمَانِ وَاحْشُرْنَا يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ مَعَ الْإِيمَانِ

O Allah keep us firm on Imaan, allow us to die with Imaan and raise us on the day of Qiyaamah with Imaan. Aameen.

Nabi Muhammad (sallallahu alayhi wasallam) made dua to Allah Ta'ala to help them. Allah Ta'ala heard his dua and sent angels from the sky. The angels looked like people and came riding on horses with turbans on their heads.

The angels helped the Muslims by fighting the non-Muslims. One Sahaabi said that he saw a non-Muslim running, then heard a loud sound and the man had fallen down, dead.

This is how Allah Ta'ala helped the Muslims in the Battle of Badr.
